

Revenue	$12,210
Individual Donations	$2,285
Earned Income	$9,925
Commissioned research	$3,170
Commissioned articles	$3,950
Publication and reprinting	$750
Online seminars	$2,055
 Expenses	 $13,917
Wages/ Contractor Fees	$10,978
Laura Quinn*	$10,723
Writing commissioned articles	$3,550
Analyzing and writing up commissioned research	$2,535
Creating and conducting online seminars	$1,638
Researching and writing the Blogging Report (not yet paid)	$3,000
Contractors	$255
Professional Fees	$530
Marketing	$1,628
Website	$710
Printing and Mailings	$348
Conferences and Travel	$570
Office Expenses (primarily 501c3 filing fee)	$782
 Net Income 2006	 -$1,707
Net Income 2005	-$607
 Total Debt (all payable to Laura Quinn)	 -$2,314

* Note that Laura Quinn was only paid for work which generated income. She has contributed approximately ten hours per week on a volunteer basis to edit Idealware's article series, write additional articles, conduct outreach to let the community know about Idealware activities, and raise funds.